His Legacy... Russell D. Veilleaux Jr. was born on May 4, 1938 in San Francisco, California to Russell & Helen Veilleaux. Russell passed away on January 25, 2010 in Oroville, California. Russell married the love of his life Judy on July 27, 1963 in Salem, South Dakota and they spent the next 46 years making a life together. He served his country in the United States Marines from 1957 to 1961. He worked as a machinist in the auto industry for 49 years. He loved country and classical music. His hobbies included working in his machine shop fabricating. He also loved to tackle challenging and innovative projects. Russell will be remembered by family & friends as a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle who was a great practical joker.

His Family... Russell is survived by his lovely wife Judy Veilleaux of Oroville, CA; son Russell (Cheryl) Veilleaux of Redding, CA; daughter Nadine (Carl) Webb of Loma Rica, CA; nephews Joal Veilleaux, Jason Veilleaux, brother Jeff Veilleaux, all of Oroville, CA; grandson’s Adam Veilleaux, John Veilleaux of Redding, CA; grandson Brady Veilleaux, granddaughter Alexis Veilleaux both of Oroville, CA. Russell is preceded in death by his brother Joal Veilleaux Sr.

His Farewell Service... No Services are planned at this time. Arrangements have been entrusted to Ramsey Funeral Home 530-534-3877

May 4, 1938
January 25, 2010

Please sign their guest book at www.RamseyFuneralHomes.com

Oroville • Gridley