Dorothy Caroline Jones

Her Legacy... Dorothy Jones, or as many knew her “Dottie” passed away in Oroville, California on March 9, 2010. Dorothy was born to Carl & Marcella Ludwig on May 25, 1923 in Sioux City, Iowa. Dottie enjoyed bowling, gardening, and playing cards. She was a Postmaster for the United States Postal Service. She will be remembered as a caring generous person who was a loving mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. Dottie Ludwig married the love of her life Leonard Lawrence Jones on November 12, 1941 in Iowa. As far as Dottie was concerned, after his death in 1985, her marriage and dedication to him continued and so they are now together once again.

Her Family... Those who will miss her are her daughter Kathleen Jones of Oroville and her son Father Clarence Jones of Seattle, Washington. Her two grandchildren; Michael Brooks Sager of Sacramento, California and Kristie Kathleen Moreno of Oroville, California and seven great grandchildren.

Her Farewell Service... Her Visitation will be held at Oroville Funeral Home in Oroville on Thursday, March 18, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to noon. Her Funeral Mass will follow at 2:00 p.m. at St Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church, 1330 Bird Street in Oroville. A private family Burial Service will take place at All Souls Catholic Cemetery in Vallejo, California. Arrangements have been entrusted to Oroville Funeral Home 530-533-0323.
